

HASTINGS APPRENTICESHIP INITIATIVE

Official Launch

Thursday 29 September, 3pm
at Let's Do Business,
The Hastings Centre, The Ridge

The 'Own Grown' initiative aims to increase the number and variety of apprenticeships locally. It will give practical help and support to employers, to show how apprenticeships can improve workforce skills and grow prosperity from the inside.

A panel will be on hand to say how apprenticeships can benefit your business and answer questions on the nuts and bolts of apprenticeships.

The expert panel includes:

Gavin Graham - National Apprenticeship Service

Glyn Carter/Hannah Brookshaw - HBC's Own Grown Apprenticeship Initiative

Steve King - Let's Do Business Group / Sussex Council of Training Providers

Irene Hoare - South East Apprenticeship Company

Stuart Small - Stevens Rowsell & Co (apprentice employer)

Introduced by the Leader of Hastings Borough Council; Jeremy Birch.
Wine and canapés.

For more information email
owngrown@hastings.gov.uk
or visit www.hastings.gov.uk/owngrown

