

NatSIP Training Day:
Supporting the achievement of apprentices
with sensory impairment
An interactive training day for apprenticeship training provider staff

This training day is available in two different venues on separate dates:

Friday 17 November 2017 10:00-16:15

Hilton Doubletree Hotel,
One Piccadilly Place,
1 Auburn Street, Manchester M1 3DG

Friday 1 December 2017 10:00-16:15

Hamilton House,
Mabledon Place
London WC1H 9BD

Who is this training day for?

This new, interactive, one-day training course is for apprenticeship training provider staff to help you meet the needs of deaf/hearing impaired and vision impaired apprentices and fulfil your duties under the Equality Act 2010.

Delegates will receive a comprehensive resource pack and practical information on the following:

- Understanding the barriers young people with sensory impairments face on apprenticeships and how they can be overcome.
- Technology and support workers used by young people with sensory impairment.
- Funding for additional support.
- Assessing the needs of young people with sensory impairment.
- The latest policy developments.

Who is leading the day?

The day will be facilitated by Martin McLean from the National Deaf Children's Society, and Jude Thompson, a qualified teacher of children and young people with vision impairment.

How much will it cost?

The event costs £50/delegate, reduced to £25/delegate for NatSIP-affiliated organisations. The cost includes refreshments and lunch.

How do I book?

More information and a booking form can be found on the NatSIP website at:

<https://www.natsip.org.uk>